

Arts Partners Catalog Addendum

As you know the arts require a little flexibility! Unfortunately, some things have changed since we published the Arts Partners 09-10 Catalog. Below are the updated program offerings. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Coterie Theatre

"Honus & Me: A Baseball Card Adventure" has been replaced by "Frindle"

"Frindle"

Based on Andrew Clements' award-winning book

Adapted by William Massolia

Nicholas is ingenious. In Mrs. Granger's language arts class, Nick gets his best idea ever when his teacher explains how words end up in the dictionary. Nick decides to create his own word... frindle, and he gets other kids in the class to use the word. Before long Nick's word creates a buzz well beyond his school and town. But his teacher loves the dictionary, so a fierce power struggle ensues over a made-up word! Pick up your frindle and make note of this great show about creative thought and the power of words.

"Andrew Clements set the standard for the school story in 1996 with his first novel, Frindle, which went on to sell more than two million copies... Frindle hits every note right." – New York Times Sunday Book Review

Availability: Apr. 6 - May 16, 2010

Grades: 3-6

Fee: $5.50 per student, teacher or chaperone (for weekday groups of 20 or more)

Requirements: One chaperone per 20 students. With notice, space is available to schools who wish to bring interpreters. A limited number of Coterie interpreters may be available upon application.

Length: Approximately 70 minutes

Themes: Words and their origins, peer relationships, school life, leadership/standing up for what you believe, questioning "why".

Curriculum Ties: Communication arts/literature (vocabulary, character exploration), social studies (community, individuals and groups can create change).